

WOMEN, THE BETTER HALF OF SCIENCE

RESEARCH, GENDER AND POLICY

November 30th

Ilmatieteen laitos - Finnish Meteorological Institute
Erik Palménin aukio 1, Helsinki

11.00-11.15

Welcoming speeches

University of Helsinki – Academy Professor Tuija Pulkkinen
French Institute – Dr Jeannette Bougrab
Finnish Meteorological Institute – Dr Petteri Taalas

I. Do women have impact in science? The climate case

11.15-11.30

Dr Catherine Jeandel (CNRS - National Center for Scientific Research) Women in oceanography and climate research

11.30-12.45

Round table - Dr Catherine Jeandel, Prof. Tuija Pulkkinen (Aalto University), Dr Hannele Korhonen (Finnish Meteorological Institute), Dr Sanna Sorvari (Finnish Meteorological Institute)
Chair : Tuuli Kaskinen (Demos Helsinki)

Lunch

II. Fostering women's academic careers : any changes so far ?

14.00-14.15

Prof. Marja Makarow (Academy of Finland) Finnish legal environment

14.15-15.30

Round table - Dr Marc Calvini-Lefebvre (Aix-Marseille University), Prof. Thomas Wilhelmsson (University of Helsinki), Marja Makarow, Vanessa Dumetier (French ministry of high education and research)

Chair : Prof. Tuija Pulkkinen

Coffee break

III. Gender policy actions at European and national level

15.45-16.00

Dr Anne Pépin (CNRS) – INTERGER European project

16.00-17.25

Round table – Prof. Liisa Husu (University of Örebro), Dr Suzanne de Cheveigné (Norbert Elias Centre/CNRS), Dr Anne Pépin

Chair : Dr Solveig Bergman (Norwegian Centre for violence and traumatic stress studies)

17.20-17.35

Concluding remarks

Exhibitions in the lobby

- "Women and science"

- Women's short stories by Anne Papillault & Jean-François Dars

More information on : <http://www.france.fi/>

Attending the workshop is free, but registration is welcomed at science@france.fi before November 25th.

Institut français de Finlande - Ranskan instituutti, Kaapelitehdas, Tallberginkatu 1 C 135, 00180 Helsinki www.france.fi